DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 12, 2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-10 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Correction is noted and the rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,102,915 to Bresler et al.

Bresler discloses a shaft (13) coupled to a hemispherical head (2) that has a plurality of cutting teeth (4) and a viewing window (21,22). The cutting teeth have a generally partial hemispherical shape that allow the user to check contact between the head (2) and bone to ensure a good fit. The windows (21, 22) are configured dependent upon the location of the teeth. Bresler describes the method of use in column 5, which includes placing the device against bone, rotating the cutting head (2) and stopping rotation. Regarding the limitation “at least one convex segment”, the viewing windows of Bresler may include convex segments as seen in Figure 3.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
